

Code:

SP106

Description:

The lifting key is a plastic moulding which is cast into concrete covers to provide an accurate void to accept a lifting key.

The main advantages of the lifting key are;

- › Creates an accurate, undercut profile in the concrete part
- › Simplifies mould design
- › Can be supported by steel reinforcement

